INTRODUCING SCENARIOS

Scenarios make illustrating complex benefit changes possible for anyone with or without benefits expertise. The scenarios functionality will help you to provide your clients with detailed advice so they can make decisions based on accurate and reliable calculation information.

MOVING HOUSE, HAVING A BABY OR GAINING A NEW PARTNER CAN TRIGGER CHANGES TO ENTITLEMENTS INCLUDING MOVING ONTO UNIVERSAL CREDIT

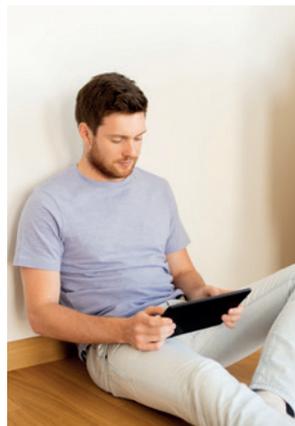

Moving Home.

USE SCENARIOS TO SHOW THE IMPACT OF CHANGES BEFORE THEY HAPPEN, MAKING PLANNING EASIER

HOW TO USE SCENARIOS

The scenarios functionality is a premium feature of entitledto tools and it is available in the adviser and premium tools (it isn't available in the free calculator).

STEP 1

Progress to a results page

To access the scenarios functionality you first need to progress to the end of a calculation.

STEP 2

Scroll to the scenarios area

When on the results page scroll to the 'How would other changes affect your benefits?' section and select the option to create a new scenario.

STEP 3

Create a scenario

Use the pen icon to name your scenario (optional) and the start button to start a new scenario.

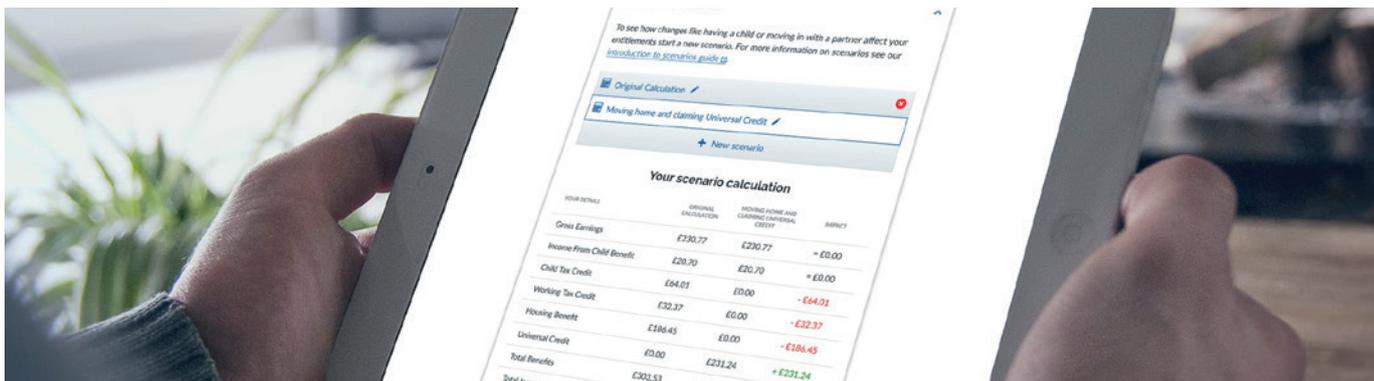

STEP 4

Complete scenario details

You'll be directed to the start page of a calculation to complete your scenario. Note the new scenario is pre-populated with entries from the original calculation. Adapt any circumstances as required and progress to the results page.

STEP 5

Compare scenarios

The scenarios section on the results page allows you to easily compare scenarios with the original calculation.

Time-saving

Scenarios are pre-populated with the original calculation information.

Be proactive

Understand and plan for changes in entitlements before they happen.

Unlimited scenarios

Create unlimited scenarios to forecast and explain changes in circumstances.

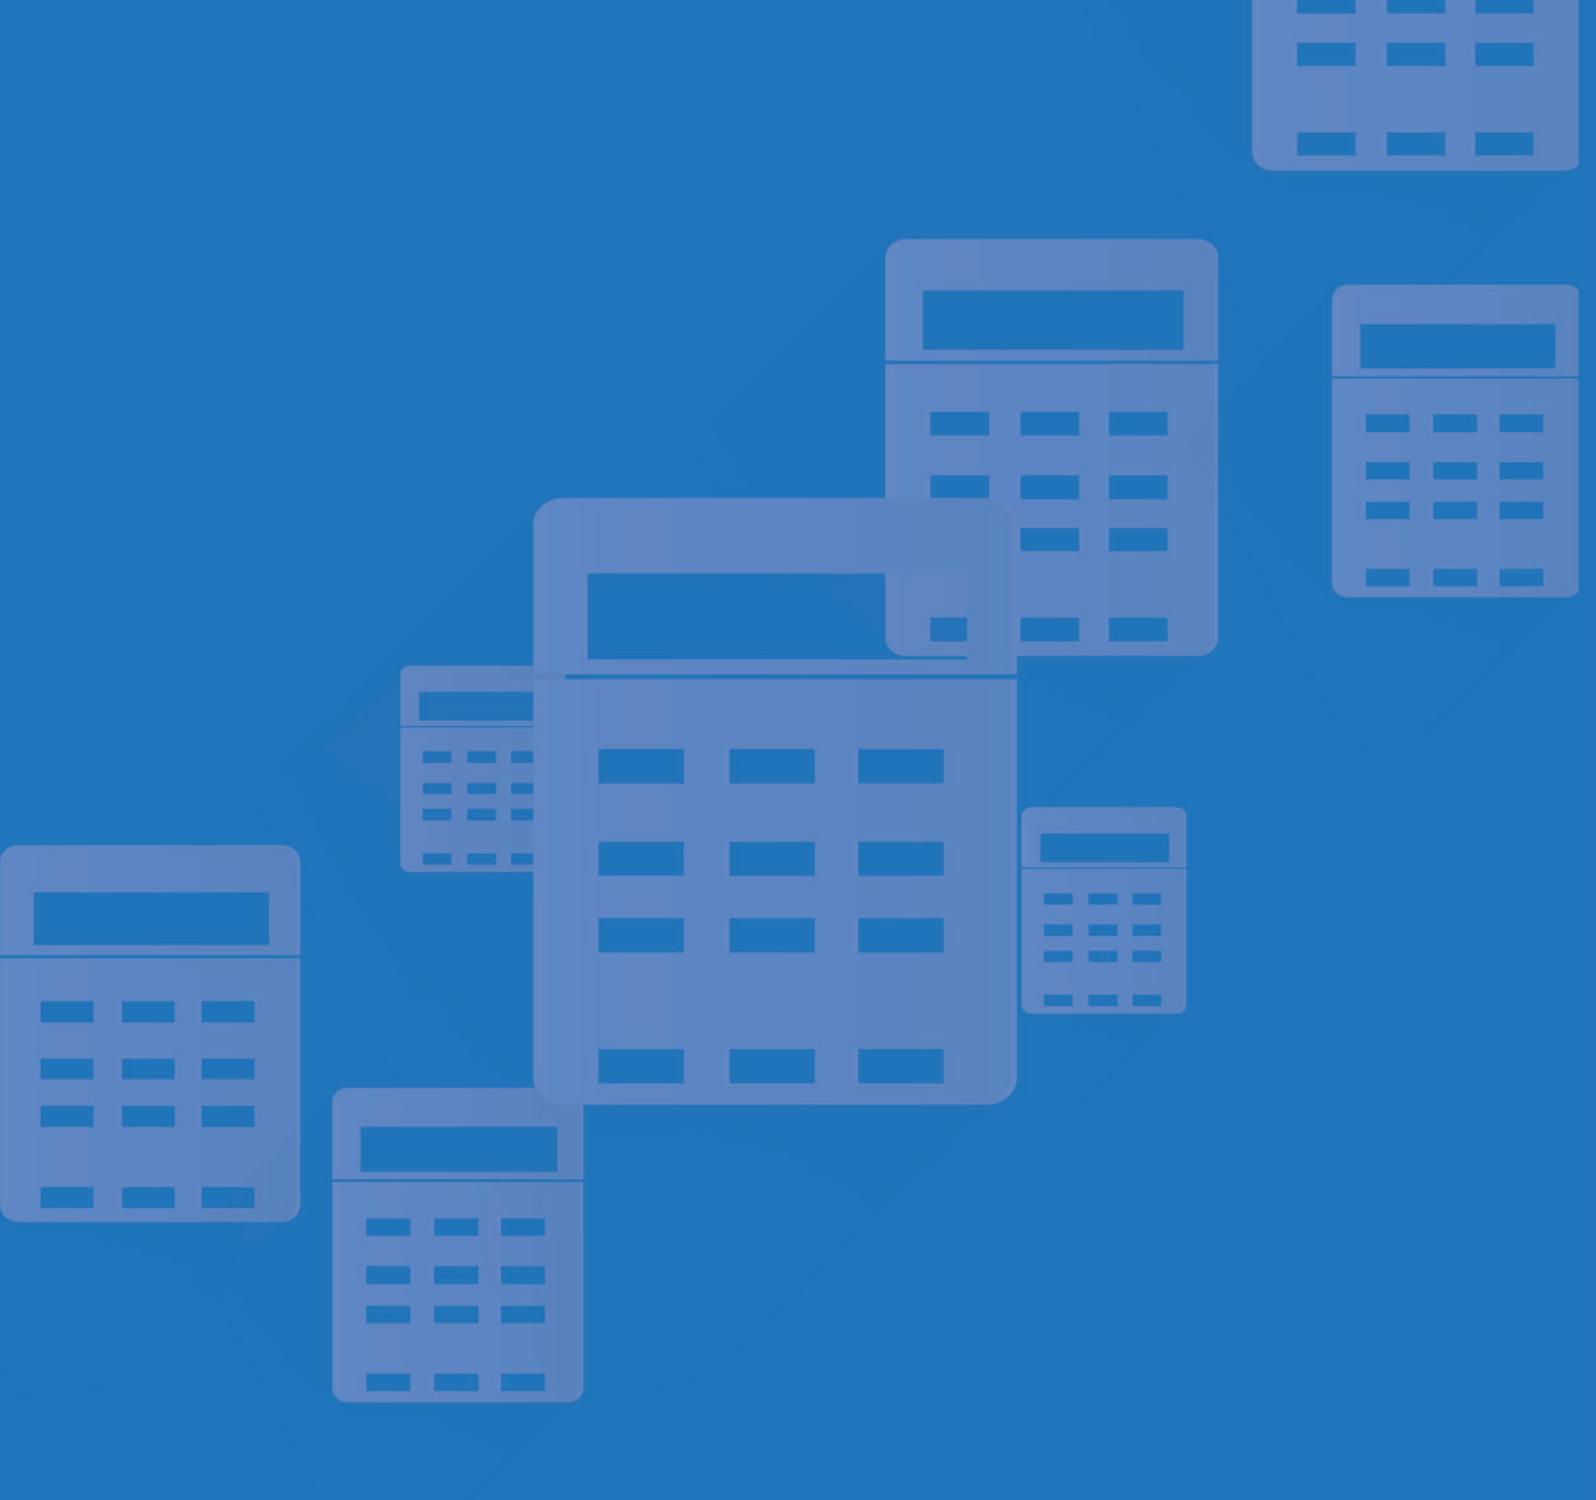

Improve lives

Provide complicated benefits advice and enhance financial well-being.
